Paris.

I mused
Up and down, up and down, terraced streets,
The glittering Boulevards, the white colonades
Of fair fantastic Paris who wears boughs
Like plumes, as if man made them—hosing up
Her fountains in the sunshine from the squares,
As dice i' the game of beauty, sure to win:
Or as she blew the down-balls of her dreams,
And only waited for their falling back,
To breathe up more, and count her festive hours.

The city swims in verdure, beautiful
As Venice on the waters, the sea swan.
What bosky gardens, dropped in close walled courts,
As plumes in ladies' laps, who start and laugh:
What miles of streets that run on after trees,
Still carrying the necessary shops,
Those open caskets, with the jewels seen!
And trade is art, and art's philosophy.
In Paris! There is a silk for instance, there,
As worth an artist's study for the folds,
As that bronze opposite? nay, the bronze has faults;
Art's here too artful—conscious as a maid,
Who leans to mark her shadow on the wall
Until she lose a vantage in her step.
Yet Art walks forward, and knows where to walk;
The artists also, are idealists,
Too absolute for nature, logical
To austerity in the application of
The special theory: not a soul content
To paint a crooked pillar, and straight arch,
As the English will, because they find it so,
And like it somehow. Ah, the old Tuileries
Is pulling its high cap down on its eyes,
Confounded, conscience stricken, and amazed
By the artificial splendors, that look out
In those devouring mirrors! Through the grate,
Within the gardens, what a heap of babes,
Swept up like leaves beneath the chesnut trees,
From every street and alley of the town
By the ghoul's privilege, that blows too bleak this way,
A-looking for their heads! Dear pretty babes,
I'll wish them luck to have their ball play out
Before the next change comes. And farther on
What statues, poised upon their columns fine,
As if to stand a moment were a sin
Against that blue! What squares! what breathing room
For a nation that runs fast—ay, runs against
The dentist's teeth at the corner, in pale rows,
Which grin at progress in an epigram.

I walked the day out, listening to the chink
Of the first Napoleon's dry bones, as they lay
In his second grave beneath the golden dome
That caps all Paris like a helm: "that's he,
These dry bones live," thought Louis Philippe once,
And lived to know. Herein is argument
For kings and politicians, but still more
For poets, who bear buckets to the well,
Of simpler draught.

The Bench and the Bar in Texas.

Judson T. Mills, of South Carolina, was a Judge of the District Court in Northern Texas, fond of a joke, but very decided in his discharge of duty.—Tom Fannin Smith was a practicing lawyer at the bar, and having shamefully misstated the law in his address to the jury, turned to the Court and asked the Judge to charge the jury accordingly. The Judge was indignant and replied:

"Does the counsel take the Court to be a fool?"

Smith was not abashed by the reproof, but instantly responded:

"I trust your Honor will not insist on an answer to that question, as I might in answering it truly be considered guilty of contempt of Court."

"Fine the counsel ten dollars, Mr. Clerk!" said the Judge.

Smith immediately paid the money, and remarked that it was ten dollars more than the Court could show.

"Fine the counsel fifty dollars!" said the Judge.

The fine was entered by the Clerk, and Smith not being ready to respond to that sum, sat down. The next morning, on the opening of the Court, Smith rose, and with much deference addressed the Judge:

"May it please your Honor, the Clerk took that little joke of yours, yesterday, about the fifty dollars, as serious, as I perceive from the reading of the minutes. Will your Honor be pleased to inform him of his error and have it erased?"

The coolness of the request, and the implied apology, pleased the Judge, and he remitted the fine.

Judge Williamson; or Three legged Willie, as he was familiarly called, was one of the early Judges of Texas. In his Court, a lawyer by the name of Charlton stated a point of law, and the Court refused to admit the counsel's statement as sufficient proof.

"Your law, sir," said the Judge; "give us the book and page, sir."

"This is my law, sir," said Charlton, pulling out a pistol, "and this, sir, is my book," drawing bowie knife, "and that is the page," pointing the pistol toward the Court.

"Your law is not good, sir," said the unruffled Judge, "the proper authority is 'Colt on Revolvers,'" and he brought a six-shooter instantly to bear on the head of the counsel, who dodged the point of argument and turned to the jury.

On another occasion the Judge concluded the trial of a man for murder by sentencing him to be hung that very day. A petition was immediately signed by the bar, jury and people, praying that longer time might be granted the prisoner. The Judge replied to the petition that "the man had been found guilty, the jail was unsafe, and, besides, it was so very uncomfortable he did not think any man ought to be required to stay in it any longer than was necessary." The man was hung.

ANOTHER COWHIDING AFFAIR IN ST. LOUIS.—Morris Sarzazm caused the arrest of Frau Catharanna Wamsgang in St. Louis, on Thursday last, on a charge of willfully and maliciously assaulting him, the said Morris, with force and arms, and more particularly with a small cow skin whip, inflicting divers and sundry wounds, contusions, bruises and excoriations, upon sundry parts of his, the aforesaid Morris' person, to wit, upon his head, neck, arms, breast, back, stomach, hips, legs, feet, etc. Frau Catharanna did not choose to employ a lawyer to defend her before the jury, considering herself amply able to defend herself under any, and all circumstances—so squaring herself opposite the plaintiff and his Counsel, she acted at once the part of defendant and advocate. She conducted her case in such a manner that it soon became evident that she was no stranger to courts and jurors. Her "summing up," was able and to the point. "Shentlemens of te Shury," said she, "I know I licks dat man mit von leetle shtick made of ledder, and vot for I licks him? pecause he be von leetle bugger, he makes himself in mine house on de side valk pefore mine door, and he say you pe von great pig someding I don't know vat, and he comes two or tree times and say so pefore and pehind mine leetle shildren, and I tells him to go avay, and den he stays dere more, and say got for tam, and odder tings, till I vos madder as te ped bug, den I gomes out of mine pack door in te street and I lick him mit dis leetle voden shtick, shust as I vil do ein, swi, tri times more, if he makes himself in mine hous agin, and I licks te shudge or you shentlemen or any poddy if dey gomes dere any more to make nonsense at mine hous.

The jury after consultation assessed a fine of $1.00 which was paid by madam as she remarked, "well dat is no sheeper as I thinks, mine Gott I will lick te mean feller vonce more.

National Democratic Platform.

ADOPTED AT BALTIMORE, JULY 23RD, 1860.

Resolved, That the platform adopted by the Democratic party at Cincinnatti be affirmed, with the following explanatory resolutions:

First, That the government of a Territory organized by an act of the Congress is provisional and temporary, and during its existence all citizens of the United States have an equal right to settle with their property in the Territory, without their rights, either of person or property, being destroyed or impaired by Congressional or territorial legislations.

Second, That it is the duty of the Federal Government, in all its departments, to protect, when necessary, the rights of persons and property in the Territories, and whatever else its constitutional authority extends.

Third, That when the settlers in a Territory having an adequate population, form a State Constitution, the right of sovereignty commences, and being consummated by admission into the Union they stand on equal footing with the people of other States, and the State thus organized ought to be admitted into the Federal Union, whether its constitution prohibits or recognizes the institution of slavery.

Resolved, That the Democratic party are in favor of the acquisition of the island of Cuba, on such terms as will be honorable to ourselves and just to Spain, at the earliest practical moment.

Resolved, That the enactments of State legislatures to defeat the faithful execution of the fugitive slave law are hostile in character, subversive of the Constitution, and revolutionary in their effect.

Resolved, That the Democracy of the United States recognize it as the imperative duty of this Government to protect the naturalized citizen in all his rights, whether at home or in foreign lands, to the same extent as its native born citizens.

Whereas, One of the greatest necessities of the age, in a political, commercial, postal and military point of view, is a speedy communicating between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the National Democratic party do hereby pledge themselves to use every means in their power to secure the passage of some bill, to the extent of the Constitutional authority of Congress, for the construction of a Pacific railroad from the Mississippi river to the Pacific ocean, at the earliest practicable moment.

☞In the New York State Democratic Convention which met last month, Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson made the following speech. Mr. Dickinson is a man whom nine tenths of all professing Democracy in this State, including the Douglas party, would delight to honor in voting for him for any office in their power to bestow; and his sentiments now will, as they should have, weight with the people at large.

The Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson being called for, appeared, and was received with loud applause, the Convention rising to their feet and giving him three tremendious cheers.

He reviewed the progress of the Democratic party, and declared that there had always been around it men who desired to profit personally by its strength. The last and worst of Cæsars had commended that those who were offensive to him should bear upon their shoulders the carcass of the dead. There were those in the Democratic party, who are now carrying on their shoulders a dead carcass. But the true Democracy of the State, the only Democracy, in fact, had emancipated themselves, and cast off all dead weight. There are two candidates for the Presidency in the field; only two in fact, Breckinridge and Lincoln. There were others trying to get into the field, such as Douglas, and Bell, and Houston, but they could not be considered as candidates. They are running to aid one or other of the other candidates. It was said that the National Democracy were bolters. They are in one sense, for they intend to bolt the doors of the Democracy against all hucksters, auctioneers, and jobbers. [Laughter and applause.]

He reviewed the action of the Conventions at Charleston and Baltimore, arguing that the nomination of Douglas had nothing regular about it, except its impudence and presumption.

A Voice—who nominated Johnson?

Mr. Dickinson—He is not nominated at all. He proceeded to claim that Mr. Breckinridge was regularly nominated by the Convention which convened under its Chairman. He was nominated by the vote of seventeen States, and portions of other States, and would carry 127 votes in the South and Pacific States. The vote of the State of New York would therefore elect him. [Applause.] Douglas could not get an electoral vote in the South. He would not get a vote in the Eastern States, in the Western States, or in the Middle States. Breckinridge, therefore, comes near an election, while Douglas does not start at all. To beat Lincoln, then, all men should support Breckinridge, who starts with 127 electoral votes, and not a man who starts without knowing where he shall get a vote at all—He argued that Breckinridge was a Democrat who was not objectionable to any State in the Union, while Douglas was opposed to the better end by fifteen States in the Union. The Southern States would not vote for Douglas if Breckinridge was not running; but if Douglas should withdraw, Breckinridge's election would be certain. Every Democrat should insist, then, that Douglas shall be withdrawn. That would dispense with the necessity for negotiations and intrigues to which he (Dickinson) was opposed in every mood and gender, in every number and case. [Great applause.] He called upon the Democracy to raise their banner boldly and not to say they are half right and half wrong, but declare themselves all right—to take no rotten timber in their building. [Applause.] He would close as he had commenced, by congratulating the Convention on their action; and though the people might scoff at the movement, as a "cloud no bigger than a man's hand," it would grow in size, and send forth a deluge that should refresh and purify the arid soil of politics. Let them go into the field with Breckinridge and Lane, with Brady and Viele, on their banner, and see whether the people would not flock to the standard. He was not afraid because a faction was in the field against them. He had lived down many a faction, and should live down this one, and see the triumph again of the true Democracy. He thanked the Convention for the attention, and referred them to his published speech for his sentiments on the issue of the campaign. [Loud applause, and cheers.]

Political.

Among the distinguishing features of the present political campaign, it will be noticed even by a casual observer, that the Republican and Douglas parties do not hesitate to make use of the same weapons.—They borrow from each other—returning the favor in kind. There seems to be a friendly feeling at least between the leaders of the parties, although it is due to the rank and file to say that a majority of them are men of good intentions, who would scorn the idea of affiliating with the natural enemies of Democracy. Partially blinded by the fine sounding term of "Popular Sovereignty," and misled by the unfounded assertions of their leaders, that it is the mission of the Breckinridge party to legislate slavery into the territories, they will find themselves ere long standing shoulder to shoulder with the "rail splitters," and endorsing principles which they once repudiated as anti-Democratic.

We recommend those who are thus being cheated into the support of a demagogue who has not even the shadow of a chance of success, and to whom one vote given, is early equivalent to one for "Honest Abe," to examine and read the Douglas and Lincoln organs, and compare notes. They are each equally hostile to the present Administration. Both unite in cursing James Buchanan, Wm. M. Gwin, and Milton S. Latham. Why, recently, even the Douglas newspapers have rehashed an old story worn thread bare by the Republicans, about that San Juan affair, and are abusing the Administration with a vim and malice which would even shame Greeley of the Tribune.

Each in common denounce the Breckinridge party as Secessionists, Disunionists, and in other stereotyped phrases common to their mutual vocabulary.—But the coolest effrontery of the Douglasites is the attempt on their part to appropriate the doctrine of Popular Sovereignty as laid down in the Cincinnati Platform of 1856. The following Resolution embodies the doctrine as promulgated in the last Presidential campaign, and upon which the Democracy made the fight and won it

Resolved, That we recognize the right of the people of all the territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the legally and fairly expressed will of a majority of actual residents, and whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a Constitution, with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States."

Not one word there about a Territorial Legislature establishing or prohibiting slavery. Congress, thro' the Territorial Legislature, may protect it in common with other property, as they are bound to do under the Constitution, but the power to establish or prohibit rests with the people alone, and the time to exercise it is when the people form a State Constitution. Mr. Hallett, of Massachusetts, the author of the Cincinnati Platform, very ably handles this subject:—His views of Popular Sovereignty, and of the powers of a Territorial Legislature, and of the duties of Congress under the Constitution are precisely those embodied in the Breckinridge platform. They are National, sound and conservative, and not sectional and disunionist, as is falsely charged by Lincoln, Douglas & Co.

As we last week stated, the Star was sold by its proprietor, Mr. J. H. LAWRENCE to the Douglas party. The reasons for its sale, Mr. Lawrence sets forth in his valedictory plainly and manfully. No one who has had anything so do with newspapers in this county but that understands and appreciates the difficulties that are in the way of the successful and profitable publication of a paper in a county like this, especially when competition exists. A county of some 1,500 votes, perhaps 1,800 at the coming election—depressed financially—no water ditch, and not enterprise enough except that of a political character, to set anything afire, to-day urging the publication of three papers. As a business, it is run into the ground. Men leave their own affairs and business to attend to newspapers. Sixteen hotels, a dozen blacksmith's shops and twenty stores, would not be more superfluous in this town than are three journals in this county. Every business man almost to this county in figuring his gains yearly, has to deduct an amount "paid local newspapers," that is onerous and really oppressive.

In bidding good bye to the Star, we have to say that we do so with feelings mixed with regret. It was of course in our way, and we suppose the GAZETTE was in the way of the Star. We would wish the region prosperous enough; that there was wealth enough and population enough to sustain both handsomely. Many a scrap to laugh at and many an ably written article has appeared from time to time in the columns of the paper referred to during its two years and more of existence. We've had our squabbles and petty differences, but are happy to state that no bones were broken nor social good feeling seriously impaired.

The Papers are full of accounts of fairs as well as politics. Instead of uniting with the State Fair, and in a general State show, the people of different sections have organized and held District fairs. One was last week in successful operation at Marysville; another in Contra Costa not long ago. The Stockton fair past, was, it is said, equal to the State fair, held there in '57. Several are to come off later. That of the Mechanics, in San Francisco, is in full operation. Had common sense dictated the location of the State institution, many of these would not have been held, and the Mechanics fair would have joined with it. However, mismanagement and selfish interests have had their way, and the State fair is, or will not, in a short time be of much importance. The only place for an institution of that kind to be located is, in or near where the business of the State concentrates, viz: San Francisco. To go to Marysville in the hot season, and of low water, or even to Sacramento, to which place a crowd from the southern part of the State cannot get except via San Francisco, is nonsense.—Besides it is hot as Tophet in Sacramento, and the devil himself, one would think, could only enjoy himself there in the winter season. But they have built a building, and that fixes the State concern for some years, and we may add, also kills it.

A private letter from Sacramento of the 12th inst., says the Democracy had the largest demonstration on the night of the 11th that occurred in that city. Over 1200 men turned out in the torch light procession. There were about five times as many men and ten times as many torches and transparencies as the Douglasites had in theirs. Gwin, Latham, Weller, Healy, Col. Lauder, Geiger, Benham, and one or two others spoke. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

Electoral vote.—As a matter of convenient reference, we publish below a statement of the Electoral vote of each State in 1860:

Maine	8	New Hampshire	5
Vermont	5	Massachusetts	13
Rhode Island	4	Connecticut	6
New York	35	New Jersey	7
Pennsylvania	27	Delaware	3
Maryland	8	Virginia	15
North Carolina	10	South Carolina	8
Georgia	10	Florida	3
Alabama	9	Louisiana	6
Mississippi	7	Texas	4
Arkansas	4	Missouri	9
Tennessee	12	Kentucky	12
Ohio	23	Indiana	13
Illinois	11	Michigan	6
Wisconsin	5	Iowa	4
Minnesota	4	California	4
Oregon	3

Total No. of Electoral votes.....303
Necessary to elect.....152

The Electoral vote of the Free States is 183. The Republicans have 32 votes more than sufficient to elect, provided they carry all of them. They can lose Pennsylvania and California, and Lincoln will be President, but the loss of Oregon in that will prevent. They can lose Indiana, Illinois California and Oregon, and then elect Lincoln. The matter hangs upon two or three States North throwing collectively 32 votes or more against Lincoln, or else he is President. If he is not elected by the popular vote he never will be. Popular vote in 1856:

Total votes for Buchanan	1,850,960
do do Fremont	1,354,453
do do Fillmore	885,960

Douglas carrying one or two nothern States and a southern State or so will carry the election to Congress. Bell and Everett may get a few States. Their hope is in Congressional election. Breckinridge ought to have every Southern State, and of Northern States he has to a certainty California and Oregon. With these if Pennsylvania, or Indiana and Illinois together go for him, he will be elected. Matters are mixed, and it may be and is likely to be, that a man not now nominated will be at the head of this E Pluribus Unum after al, Douglas has no chance whatever, and Lincoln must be elected by the popular vote if ever. Breckinridge of all candidates has the best chance in Congress of all the candidates. Yet another may be started who will beat the party. We are thankful that the election is near two months off, which space will give those outside the Republican party a time for reflection, repentance and reform. All should then join the Republicans, or else the Breckinridge party, for the professed occupancy of intemediate ground is perfect nonsense.

We have received the Mariposa Gazette—one of the best papers on this coast. Thanks to friend H.—Vancouver Chronicle.

We prize the compliment paid us; which together with other remarks before, particularly one upon the outside of a wrapper, leads us to suppose that the editor and ourself, might in some (to us) unremembered day have met. We've hunted Coons and dug Murphys somewhat, in this State, but somehow we can't place you. We may never have seen any of you; but we are pleased see weekly as large, well edited, and well executed a journal as is the Chronicle, and may the Lord as well as the people amongst whom you tabernacle take a liking to you.

A young man by the name of Wright was lately killed by a grizley, in Sonoma county, says the Petaluma Journal. He with others had followed the bear into a thicket, when coming near the beast she sprang upon and killed him. Another warning to leave grizleys alone.

An attempt has been made to destroy the People's Ditch, as it is called, leading into Columbia, Tuolumne county. This Ditch was built by incredible exertion and labor, upon the part of all in that vicinity. The miners to a great extent did the work, and the merchants furnished most of the provisions, tools, &c. Not a dollar of capital did they have as a company, at commencement, and how the ditch exceeding in size and length that of any other in this State, was constructed, is astonishing now to those most acquainted with it. It was however finished, but the borrowing of a little money at usurious interest by giving a mortgage upon the ditch, has proved fatal, and many a merchant, and many a miner with all his accumulations of years before, has gone by the board, in the foreclosure of mortgage. Much feeling exists, and attempts to destroy the ditch have long before been predicted. We would not be surprised to hear at any time of the partial if not total consummation of the threat. The miners round in Tuolumne county are rather "irrepressible" when they get started.

A Lodge of Odd Fellows was organized in Hornitos, last Thursday night. It is known as Lodge No. 99 I. O. of O. F. Officers: M. Magner, N. G.; W. E. Jenkins, V. G.; Wm. Stearman, Secretary; F. Friedman, Treasurer; District deputy Grand Masters, R. S. Miller and Wm. Floto, of the La Grange district, were present, and participated in the organization. Business over, the Lodge with friends adjourned to Stegman's Hotel, where the evening was passed in a very agreeable manner, as we learn.—Toasts were drank, congratulations exchanged, and at the same time the "inner individual" satisfied at the fine table of Mr Stegman.

Hornitos is an excellent place for the establishment of such a Lodge as has been established, and that it is our earnest hope. We would add that if the Secretary or any one of the Lodge would furnish proceedings upon the occasion, we would be pleased to publish them, as it is with difficulty we can make up anything like a statement, let alone particulars. For what we have, we are under obligations to Mr. LAWRENCE, formerly of the Star.

An Exchange says: "In 1841, Stephen A. Douglas, while canvassing for Congress in Illinois, in the Court House of Green county, said that 'Henry Clay was a black hearted villian—the first American that had ever been bought with British gold to sell his country.' Yet in the very face of this devilish libel, in his letter of acceptance, he asks, 'Where shall we find another Clay, to pilot the ship of state over the breakers into a haven of safety?'"

So said many a man then, who to day swallows what he said, horns and all, and asks where there is another Clay to guide in this time of trouble? The baseness of the first statement is not more disgusting than the flattering adulation in the last regarding the dead man. The history or Douglas would be well represented by a revolving sixteen square post with his face on every side.

Peter Dalton, formerly of Agua Fria, was brought over from Mona last week by Messrs. RICH AND VINING and D. T. POOR. Dalton is charged with Grand Larceny in having stolen a horse from J. L. MCCABE of Agua Fria.

Also charged with stealing a valuable mare from P. C. APPING of the lower Chowchilla.

Also with stealing a mule from one JOHN CARTER.

He was put in jail, and his chances for future re straint are very good.

A Jockey Club has been formed in Stockton. President—Col. J. W. O'Neal; Vice Presidents—a number; Secretary—Howison; Treasurer—Evans; Executive Committee—some of the most responsible citizens in the place. Mayor Holden, R. P. Hammond, Judge Creaner, Dr. Aylette, A. N. Fisher, Austin Sperry and others. We don't know what the Executive Committee are to do except to ride the horses and bet round in the crowd. The Club is to have a meeting this fall.

A Great Foot Race is to come off at San Jose to day, between "Seven-up" John and a Mexican for $20,000—$10,000 a side. Distance, 120 yards.

A Turkey Shoot will occur at Mormon Bar next Saturday, Sept. 22d, as per advertisement. Distance as usual, and price of shooting we suppose as is common at all such affairs.

Capt. Myers, of Log Town, has this year raised remarkably fine specimens of peaches, as he has for some two or three years past. None in the county excel, or perhaps, equal them. His prospect of grapes is good, as the "big vine," which almost covers his house, is full of clusters. Last year it bore some hundreds of pounds.

Wm. Wells, a gent of "complexion," supposed to have stolen 4 ounces of gold dust, and $36 in coin, Aug 31st, from David Egenhoff, merchant at the mouth of Sherlock's, was last week tried before Justice Byrne and put in jail in default of giving $500 bail. The next Grand Jury will "set on him."

A Chinaman died and was buried at Buckeye last week; his name, or of what disorder he died or who his father was, or whether he left any property, &c. is not a matter upon which the public are generally informed.

The tenth anniversary of the admission of this State into the Union was celebrated by the California pioneers and others, Sept. 10th, (Monday.)—Since that admission five hundred millions of dollars has gone from this State to swell the wealth of the world; and works, wonderful to contemplate, have in the State been accomplished.

Grand Gala Day in Hornitos.

HORNITOS, Friday, Sept. 14, 1860.

This thriving little town has been the theatre of more than ordinary excitement during the present week. An enthusiastic meeting of the Breckinridge Democracy on Tuesday evening last, was followed by a demonstration on the following day and evening by the Fire Department, which turned out to be the grandest affair of the kind which has ever taken place in this County. In accordance with the published programme, the members of "Protection Hook and Ladder Company" assembled at 12 o'clock at the New Truck House on Mechanic street, where they were formed by Foreman J. F. MYERS and Assistant Foreman GIL NEGUS, and being joined in the procession by citizens on foot and horseback and escorted by the Hornitos Brass Band, took up the line of march under the direction of ALEX MCELROY, Marshal of the day, and J. B. COGANOUR, Assistant Marshal. The company were out in uniform—red shirts, glazed caps, and belts bearing the inscription, "Protection No. 1."

Their Truck (by the way, a fine specimen of home manufacture) was tastefully decorated with wreaths and flags, and manned by the "b'hoys," presented a very creditable appearance, and speaks favorably of the public spirited citizens of this burg. After parading around town, the procession marched out to the ranch of Judge MCELROY, where a bevy of the fair sex were in waiting. Miss MARTHA STEGMAN, a young lady of fifteen, in behalf of the ladies of Hornitos, presented the company with an elegant and costly American flag, accompanying the presentation with a neat and appropriate address, which was delivered in a style worthy of the applause which was not spared by the recipients of the gift.

In behalf of the company, JOHN M. COROORAN responded in a brief and eloquent address, assuring the fair donors that "Protection No. 1" would be always ready to protect the lives and property of their fellow citizens. A bountiful collation had been prepared under the shade of a noble old oak, to which at the word "fall to," the company did ample justice. At about 4 P. M., the procession reformed, and marched back to Town, when, after housing the truck, the balance of the day was spent in putting away all the champaigne which was comfortable. "The fluid" was furnished without stint, by the residents, who all seemed to take a lively interest in the proceedings.

The Ball in the evening was a superb affair, and passed off to the satisfaction of the entire company, so far as heard from. The "Protections" were out in nearly full ranks, and red shirts were of course, "No. 1" in the mazes of the dance. Whether the ladies reflected the color in their blushing face, deponent sayeth not, but will probably be endorsed in stating that there has seldom been as bright an array of beauty congregated in one assembly in this vicinity. "Long may they wave!"

Mr. Editor, you "galyant" knight of the quill, you should have been there and seen what your correspondent fails to describe. How the party danced "till day light did appear"—how "Browning" played his best—"Joe" sang his sweetest—and the ladies all looked and behaved and were dressed their prettiest, may do to talk about, but should have been seen to be appreciated. "The opinion of the Court" is that you missed it.

Last evening the organization of a new Lodge of Odd Fellows was perfected. What passed is best known to the initiated. After the ceremonies they adjourned to Stegman's Hotel to partake of a bountiful supper. Wine flowed freely, and toasts, sentiments and short speeches were the order of the night.

The funeral of Col. GIVENS occurred to day at 11 o'clock, at the "Texas Tent," his late residence. A large concourse of citizens attended and followed to the grave the remains of one who was universally admired. His death has cast a gloom over the entire community, by whom he was held in high estimation. LOITERER.

The Douglas papers and Douglas orators, with the veracity characteristic of them, say that Yancey is a disunionist—that Yancey supports Breckinridge—therefore Breckinridge is a disunionist—inexorable logic. By the same process we can prove Douglas a disunionist. In Alabama, Gov. Winston, John Forsythe, Mr. Figares and Mr. Seibel support Douglas. What does Yancey say of them.—We cut the following extract from his recent speech at Memphis:

As far as disunion is concerned, Gov. Winston, in a letter to the Legislature of my State, recommended that the Union should be dissolved; and in a letter to Mr. Figares he did the same thing. Mr. Forsythe has done the same thing. Mr. Forsythe was also for disunion. Mr. Seibel, now a submissionist, was openly and avowedly a member of a disunionist club. Herschel V. Johnson, the Douglas candidate for the Vice Presidency, was a disunionist member of a Convention, made disunionist speeches; and yet, with these great and prominent members of the Douglas party, yet supporting Douglas, they charge that it has no effect on the Douglas party. But as to myself, who support Breckinridge, my support makes him a disunionist because I have said that we being refused our constitutional rights, in the event that I am for separating from the government of the higher law that is to be built on the Constitution.

Gov. Winston was Governor of Alabama in 1856 and 57, and wrote the message referred to as late as 1857, a little before or about the time Yancey wrote what is claimed to be his disunion letter.

The "thing" is sick.

The Stockton Argus had a severe attack of the colic on the 14th inst, caused by a spasmodic effort to swallow the terms "puppy and liar," applied by the editor of the "Star," which paper in common with the GAZETTE was denounced by him of the Argoose as a "hireling disunion sheet." In its efforts to gulp it down the anti Democratic organ vomits forth a string of fish market slang, perfectly in keeping with the general tone and respectability of that paper. "Go in" Argus, say whatever you please, but dont—dont for God's sake disgrace us with your praise.

Certain of the ungodly who were too impatient to wait over Sunday, after the expiration of the game laws, were seen out on last Sabbath in the act of breaking that sacred day of rest. They ought to be ashamed, especially when they dont bag any game. These sinners should be severely reprimanded for their evil deeds. Most of them have undoubtedly been taught better things; perhaps are the children of pious parents, who have trained them up "in the fear of the Lord." Perhaps that's what's the matter with 'em. Like the Georgia boy, they are so afraid of him that they don't dare to go half a mile from town without a double barreled shot gun.

Will any Hornitos friend tell us the individual who writes to the Stockton Argus, over the signature of "H. B." This correspondent of the paper mentioned, makes it out that the head quarters of the Breckinridge party is in a gambling saloon; that it is an insignificant party at best; that the Douglas party is in the ascendant; that Bell and Everett are nowhere. "H. B." writes us "the privileged editor of doubtful jokes," and we will write him an anonymous individual of false statements. We'd like to know him, and then he is welcome to anything he can make out of us personally. He knows that the Argus accepts at this time any kind of political verbiage or "vermifuge," as Judge DALY calls it; and so he takes this opportunity of to relieve himself of that article, only acceptable when "copy" is short. "H. B." will please accept our "devours," and sign his name next time.

A series of accidents occurred to Fisher's line of stages, between this place and Hornitos, last week On Monday, near the foot of the Bear Valley Mountain, the forward axletree broke, and smashed things generally. Over twenty passengers were on board, all of whom fortunately escaped serious injury. An old mud wagon was procured from Snelling's on the following day, to make the up trip, and just the other side of the Oak Spring House, one of the wheels came off and there was another smash, and nobody hurt. Since then, two horses have been badly damaged, and a tongue broken out of a job wagon, used as a substitute for the stage, on the downward trip. Altogether, Fisher & Co. seem to be in bad luck, though it might have been worse.

A Grand demonstration of the Breckinridge and Lane Democracy occurred at Hornitos on Tuesday evening last. A procession was formed headed by the Hornitos Brass Band, and carrying banners and transparencies. They halted in front of M'Clatchey's Saloon, where JOHN M. COROORAN, President of the Breckinridge Club, called the crowd to order, and introduced Hon. S. A. MERRITT, Democratic candidate for the Senate, and deservedly styled "the wheel horse of the Mariposa Democracy." Col. Merritt made a sound and effective speech, and was frequently interrupted with rounds of applause. He was followed by Hon. A. J. GREGORY and J. M. COROORAN, Esq., when the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Breckinridge and Lane.

Democratic State Convention.

The second day's proceedings of the National Democratic State Convention we abridge, says the San Joaquin Republican, from the Sacramento Democrat. The first day, the Convention met and temporarily organized by the election of Thos. J. Henley as Chairman. Committees on credentials, permanent organization, and resolutions, were appointed, and the Convention adjourned till the next day, Sept. 12th, at 10 o'clock A. M.

On the morning of the 12th, Mr. Buel, from the committee of permanent organization, reported the names of the following gentlemen for officers of the Convention:

For President of the Convention, John B. Weller, of Alameda. [Applause.] For Vice Presidents, one from each Judicial District in the State, to wit: First District, J. L. Brent; Second, Joseph C. Duncan; Third, C. P. McKee; Fourth, O. C. Hall; Fifth, Robert Howe; Sixth, J. P. Hardy; Seventh, Naithaniel Jones; Eighth, D. Fairchild, Ninth, Dr. Lovel; Tenth, F. L. And; Eleventh, Joseph Walkup; Twelfth, D. W. Connely; Thirteenth, E. C. Winchell; Fourteenth, A. T. Laird; Fifteenth, O. S. Allen; Sixteenth, J. A. Brown; Seventeenth, Capt. Cunningham. For Secretary of the Convention, W. J. Hooten, Solano. For Assistant Secretaries, Franklin Lawton, of San Francisco; P. L. Sheaff, of San Joaquin; D. F. Beach, of Placer. For Sergent at-Arms, John Doulon, of Sacramento. For Assistant Sergeant at Arms, D. Gleason, of San Francisco.—For Page, Hugh Mauldin.

The Committee further recommended the following as the order of business:

1. Nomination of four Electors for President and Vice President.
2. Nomination of four Alternate Electors.
3. Election of Democratic State Central Committee.
4. Report of the Committee on Resolutions.

The report was concurred in.

On assuming the Chair, Governor Weller was greeted with a storm of applause, and made a brief speech, after which the business of the Convention was proceeded with.

An assessment of three dollars per man was levied on the delegates present for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Convention.

The Convention proceeded to the nomination of Presidential Electors, with the following result:

Elector from the Southern District, Antonio F. Coronel.

Elector from the Northern District, Vincent E. Geiger, of Tehama.

Elector for the Central portion of the State, Zach. Montgomery, of Sutter; Allen P. Dudley, of Calaveras.

Alternate Electors—Horace Smith, of Placer; Franklin Ganahl, of Siskiyou; R. Hoffman, of San Diego; H. P. Barber, of Tuolumne.

A committee, consisting of one from each delegation, was then appointed to report a State Central Committee.

The Committee reported the following names, which were adopted by the Convention:

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the democracy of California in Convention assembled, indorse and cordially approve the platform adopted by the Convention which nominated John C. Breckinridge and Joseph Lane, as a just exposition of the true principles of the true National Democracy.

Resolved, That the Administration of James Buchanan has met the just expectations of the country by its patriotism, firmness and loyalty to the Constitution.

Resolved, That we congratulate the people of this State upon the passage through the Senate of the United States of a bill to establish a daily Overland Mail on the Central Route, and respectfully but earnestly request Messrs. Scott and Burch to urge its passage through the House of Representatives at an early day in the next session of Congress.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to County Committees of the several counties of this State to have ballots prepared favoring the calling of a Constitutional Convention.

Resolved, That this Convention do most cordially indorse and approve of the action of the State Democratic Central Committee, presided over by Charles Lindley, at its recent meeting at San Francisco.

Resolved, That we enter into the present contest with an enthusiasm worthy of our cause, and the watchwords "Pacific Railroad," "Daily Overland Mail," "Mail Steamships to China and Japan," and the "Annexation of all the territory we can honorably acquire," be inscribed upon our banner.

The business of the Convention having been concluded, Mr. Aud, of Yuba, moved a final adjournment.

Before announcing the adjournment, Gov. Weller addressed the Convention in a neat and forcible speech, at the conclusion of which the members gave three cheers for Weller and six for Breckinridge and Lane.

Breckinridge and Lane Club.—Pursuant to notice, a meeting of the Democrats of Mariposa favorable to the election of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE, L. A. HOLMES was chosen Chairman and JAMES H. LAWRENCE, Secretary.

On motion of Col. S. A. Merritt, a Committee of three was appointed for the purpose of drafting a Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the Club: Messrs. S. A. Merritt, A. J. Gregory and W. T Arberry.

On motion a committee of three were appointed to procure the publication of a document setting forth the objects of the Club, and to circulate the same for signatures, whereupon Messrs. C. Kerrins, C. S. McKeown and M. L. Boling, were appointed as the Committee.

On motion, adjourned to meet on Saturday evening Sept. 22d, at half past 7 o'clock.

Ordered that notice of the next meeting be published in the MARIPOSA GAZETTE.

L. A. HOLMES, Ch'm.
JAS. H. LAWRENCE, Sec'y.
Mariposa, Sept. 15th, 1860.

To-day appears the first number of the Mariposa News, as we understand the name to be.—ALEX. DEERING, Esq., Editor; publisher's name not known; proprietors, the Douglas party. From what we know of Mr. Deering, it will be ably edited and the body politic will be treated as scientifically and thoroughly as it is possible for a bad case to be.—Great exertions are being made to procure subscribers, and it will doubtless start with a considerable circulation.

The chap who does the "Thoughts as they occur" in the New York Ledger, thinks "a good summer storm is a rain of riches. If gold and silver rattled down from the clouds they would hardly enrich the land so much as soft, long rains. Every drop is silver going to the mint. The roots are machinery, and catching the drops, they assay them, refine them, roll them, stamp them, and turn them out coined berries, apples, grains and grasses. All the mountains of California are not so rich as are the soft mines of Heaven."

A young man by the name of NELSON, while under the influence of bad whisky, shot his pistol off a few times in the street, on Sunday evening, last. Fortunately no one was hurt, though the balls passed in close proximity to several passers by. He was arrested by under-Sheriff HOWELL, and lodged in jail, the best place for these mock desperadoes, who are ambitious for distinction in the shooting line.

Messrs. LEHMANN & SCHANFELD, Dry Goods merchants, have sent for and will receive during the present week, a large and complete assortment of Fall and Winter Goods.

An Obituary notice of the death of Col GIVENS came as usual, too late for insertion. A little effort was all that we suppose was lacking to get it to us in time for publication.

Hard on the "Regular Nominee."

The names of nine gentlemen were submitted to the Charleston Convention for the nomination for the Presidency, viz: Messrs. Hunter, Guthrie, Douglas, Dickinson, Lane, Toucey, Davis, Johnson, of Tennessee, and Pearce of Maryland. Since the rupture at Baltimore, all these gentlemen have declared their preferences as follow:

FOR MAJOR BRECKINRIDGE.

1. Hon. R. M. T. Hunter.
2. Gen. Jo. Lane.
3. Hon. James Guthrie.
4. Hon. Andrew Johnson.
5. Col. Jefferson Davis.
6. Hon. Isaac Toucey.
7. Hon. James A. Pearce.
8. Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson.

FOR JUDGE DOUGLAS.

1. Hon. Stephen A. Douglas.

It will thus be seen that only one of them that supports Douglas is that gentleman himself, and it must be admitted with a considerable degree of vigor. He lets no opportunity slip to edge in a word for himself. The last that was heard of him was at a clam bake in Rhode Island, descanting at great length upon the virtues of the "regular nominee." In addition to the facts above stated, it may be added that of the gentlemen prominently mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination, but who were not voted for at Charleston, nearly every one has expressed a preference for Breckinridge and Lane. Among them are Ex Governor Wise, Ex Speaker Orr, Senator Hammond, Ex President Pierce, Senator Slidell, Secretary Thompson, Senator Bright, Hon. Howell Cobb and Senator Bayard.—Democratic Standard.

In New York, in 1856, there were between fifty and sixty journals that supported Fillmore.—Now in 1860, there are but six that suppor Bell and Everett.

The Finest lot of coarse gold we ever saw was last week shown us by Messrs. ARNOLD & Co., who took it out on the Agua Fria last winter. The pieces shown were in value from $2 to $47, in all amounting to as much as $400. These were reserved from the general product as specimens.

Several parties are tunneling into the hill back of Log Town, and getting good pay. The lead was struck lately, and hopes are entertained of extensive bill diggings.

MARRIED:

At Bear Valley, Saturday evening, Aug 16th, 1860, Mr. P. E. MARGRAVE to Miss ROSE WHALEN.

We dont know Mr. MARGRAVE especially, but we will express the wish that he may have a "first rate catch," and that his "Whalen adventure" will be both pleasant and profitable.

BIRTH:

In Mariposa, Tuesday, Sept. 11th, the Wife of C. E. Farnsworth, of a SON.

DIED:

Col. THOMAS GIVENS, an old and much esteemed resident, died at his Ranch (known as the "Texas Ranch") near Hornitos, last Wednesday, Sept. 12, 1860, of Congestive Fever.

Col GIVENS was born in Kentucky in 1798, consequently he was sixty two years old. He has held positions of responsibility and honor in his native State, and no one here was regarded with greater respect or was shown greater deference, socially or publically.

He came to this State 1853 with his family, which singularly, has been decimated by death beyond that of any other with whom we have ever been acquainted. His funeral occurred Friday the 14th, and his remains were followed to the grave by the whole community. The Hornitos Fire Company appeared in the procession, and other associations would have appeared had a knowledge of Col. GIVENS' death been more generally known.

To his last home is thus consigned another brave old Kentuckian. Two in two weeks—Col. GIVENS and Squire WATTS. Not numerous in the State are men of their age, experience and respectability.

The British Bank of North America at Victoria, is issuing bank notes for $1 and upwards, U. S. currency; not "Hinglish poons" as they talk.—First "shinplasters" on the coast.

THE BEST PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD.—Hall's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and Iodide of Potass.

Special Notice.—To relieve suffering has been the object of the humane and philanthropic in all ages; before the practice of medicine became a science the sick were publicly exposed in the open air and every passer by named the remedy he consider ed most suitable for the complaint. We possess at the present day through the agency of the press a more reliable mode of conveying information to our suffering fellow creatures. Those afflicted with scrofula, curtaneous, and eruptive diseases will find in the columns of almost every newspaper and Periodical published; certificates and testimonials from those who have been speedily cured of these dreadful complaints by the purifying and powerfully regenerative qualities of Sands' Sarsaparilla. feb7th

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TUR

Mariposa Gazette

For the Gazette.

Who are we going to send to the Legislature.

MR. HOLMES:—Can you tell me why it is that we have such a host of aspirants in the field, for Legislative honors? I am beseiged from morn until late at night, by this numerous class, each of whom has some claim to advocate for that office, and individually thinks the people ought to send him. For instance, one is the strongest, another the best man, one has run twenty-six times and been defeated twenty six, and thinks now he should be elected.—One has lost a limb, another has a stiff leg, another the dropsy, another the gout, another has served in fighting Indians, or served in the Mexican War, as the case may be, an1 all have something to advocate. As a matter of course I promise to support each claimant for that office, and yet after all I don't know who I shall vote for. Now, Mr. Holmes, what I wish to arrive at is, is it binding on me to support all those that I have promised? Is there any way I can back out of it honorable? Do not candidates for Legislative honors often promise their constituents what they will do when they get to the Legislature, and did you ever know or hear of such a promise being fulfilled? Is there any man of "Bulkhead," this coming winter, to cause such an array of aspirants to come out to supplicate people's votes? By answering the above questions you will oblige an inquiring and persecuted

VOTER.

Later from Mexico.—Intelligence from Vera Cruz, received at New Orleans, informs us that the Liberals have invested the City of Mexico, the centre of Miramon's influence—with an immense army and commenced operations, with every prospect of capturing the place. Miramon was encamped with 2000 men, 25 miles from the city, but was unable to send aid, and the general impression was that he could not hold out much longer. The crops in the grain region were scarce, and what late grain there was in the country was being seized by the foreign troops. In consequence of this, a famine, accompanied by much suffering, was apprehended.

The Abolition Plot in Texas.

The Abolition plot in Texas far exceeds in infamy the scheme of John Brown. The Weatherford (Texas) Texan, of Aug. 16th, received by Overland Mail, says:

From recent developments in Tarrant and other counties, it appears that the Abolition emissaries have their plans well matured, and that it behoves every good citizen to be on the alert. Poison has been, and still continues to be found. It is said enough has been discovered in one country to destroy every white inhabitant of the State.

Their plans are to burn the stores, mills, ect., break up the business men, so their place can be supplied by others of the abolition stripe. But the people manifest a determination to anticipate them. We are informed that Vigilance Committees are being organized in all sections of the country, determined to examine into and ferret out all connected with the incendiaries, and to deal with them as will appear best for the safety of the community.

The Prospect in Oregon.—Within the past three weeks we have traveled through half a dozen counties, addressed three meetings, received letters from and conversed with intelligent and well informed men from almost every part of the State, and, as the result of all, we do not hesitate to express the conviction that, in any event, Breckinridge and Lane will obtain a plurality, and we are confident that they will obtain a majority over the combined vote of both Lincoln and Douglas. The prospect for their doing so is as flattering as was that of Col Sheil's receiving a majority over Logan twenty days prior to the June election. We Judge also from the large number of letters we are constantly receiving, inviting us to address the people in every county in the State, that the Democratic masses are just rousing themselves for efficient and determined action in the cause of the Democratic national candidates, Breckinridge and Lane. Let the column move forward.—Oregon Democrat.

Kentuc.—The Kentucky Statesman says: To our friends abroad we have to say that no apprehension need be felt as to the vote of Kentucky in November next. Mr. Breckinridge will certainly receive the vote of Kentucky, and by not less than ten thousand majority. He can't be beaten in Kentucky. No fear need be entertained on that score.

Shannon, of the Visalia Delta, says that a committee was sent out in one portion of that county, in search of a Douglas man, for whom a reward of $25 00 was offered. He was found, after a long search, but was standing alone. That county is sure for Breckinridge and Lane.

THE LOTTERY OF MARRIAGE.—The Assurance Magazine, an English periodical, has the assurance to make the following statemens: "We are told that in the two periods of life—20 to 25 and 25 to 30—the probability of a widower marrying in a year is nearly three times as great as that of a bachelor: at 30 it is four times as great; and from 35 to 45 it is five times as great; at 60 the chance of a widower marrying in a year is eleven times as great as that of a bachelor. After the age of 50 the probability of a bachelor marrying in a year diminishes in a most rapid ratio; the probability at 35 is not much more than half that at 30, and nearly the same proportion exists between each period of five years afterward."

IRVING'S FIRST LOVE.—Washington Irving, in early life, loved the daughter of a wealthy Knickerbocker, who refused her to him, and bestowed her upon a rich clergyman, Dr. Creighton. Insanity was hereditary in her family, and her husband pledged her a mansion and estate if she became a lunatic. The sad event occurred. The lady became a maniac—her shrieks could often be heard on quiet nights at the author's home. No one can tell how much this dark story contributed to the melancholy which clouded the writer's last days. The unfortunate woman is still alive. Singular enough, Dr. Creighton officiated for years at the chapel which Irving attended, and read the burial service at his funeral.

Abram's Picture.—Tell us of his fight with Douglas—how his spirit never quails; tell us of his manly bearing, of his skill in splitting rails. Tell us he's a second Webster; or, if better, Henry Clay: that he's full of genial humor—placid as a summer's day. Call him Abe, or call him Abram, Abraham—'tis all the same—Abe will smell as sweet as either; we don't care about the name. Say he's capable and honest, loves his country's good alone, never drank a drop of whisky, wouldn't know it when alone. Tell again about the cord-wood, seven cords or more per day; how each night he seeks his closet, there alone to kneel and pray. Tell us he resembles Jackson, save he wears a larger boot, and is broader 'cross the shoulders, and is taller by a foot. Any lie you tell we'll swallow—swallow any kind of mixture; but, oh, don't—we beg and pray you—don't for God's sake show his picture!

Sir Boyle Roche, an Irish baronet, was noted for his bulls in Parliament, of which he was a member. At one time, while discussing the propriety of increasing the public debt for the benefit of the present generation, he rose up and said: "Why should we beggar ourselves to benefit posterity? What has posterity done for us?" The laugh which followed rather surprised him, as he was unconscious of his blunder. He explained: "Sir, by posterity, I do not mean our ancestors, but those who came immediately after them!" Arguing in favor of a harsh government measure, he urged that it would be better to give up a part or even the whole of the constitution, to preserve the remainder!" On another occasion he said, "The best way to avoid danger is to meet it plump!" Complaining of the smallness of wine bottles, he suggested that a bill should be passed, enacting that every pint bottle should hold a quart. Fearing the progress of revolutionary opinions, he drew a very frightful picture of the future, remarking that the House of Commons might be invaded by ruffians, who, said he, "would cut us to mince meat, and throw our bleeding hearts on that table to stare us in the face."

The San Bernardino Herald has the following, in regard to the mines in that vicinity:

We have stirring times here at present since the big strikes have become known. The town is full of people from every direction, fitting out for the diggings; and, as everybody in town who could get away has gone; this sudden influx of strangers gives a citizen an idea that he is in a strange place. There is nothing talked of but mines and mining—rich quartz, silver leads and unequaled placer diggings. There is one thing settled beyond a doubt.—The mines are paying well—and what we call "well," is from $3 to $10 per day to the hand.

Hall's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and Iodide of Potass—is prepared from the finest red Jamaica Sarsaparilla and English Iodide of Potass, admirable as a Restorative and PURIFIER of the BLOOD. It cleanses the system of all morbid and impure matter; removes pimples, blotches and scorbutic eruptions from the skin. All who can afford, should use it, as it tends to give strength and prolong life.

Sold by druggists generally, at $1,00.

Special Notice.—The Medical and Surgical Institute of Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of Medical science, and they occupy with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country, as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his Profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

☞We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S SCHNAPPS.

A medicinal drink of eminently salutory qualities, manufactured by himself exclusively, at his factory at Schiedam, in Holland, and well known during the last twelve years throughout all the Atlantic and Western States.

It is made from the best barley that can be selected in Europe, with the essence of an aromatic Italian berry, of acknowledged and extraordinary medicinal properties. It has long since acquired a higher reputation, both in Europe and America, than any other diuretic beverage.

Analyzed, it is a perfectly pure Liquor, in its effects a mild and wholesome tonic. It is extensively used and approved by the medical faculty, the temperance people, heads of families, &c.

In Gravel, Gout, and Rheumatism, in obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys, and in General Debility its effects are prompt, decided, and invariably reliable; and it is not only a remedy for those maladies, but in all cases in which they are produced by drinking bad water, which is almost universally the cause of them, it acts as a sure preventive.

For Fever and Ague it is one of the most efficacious preventive that can be resorted to.

The Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps

Is consequently in great demand by persons travelling, or about to settle in new parts of the country especially, as well as by many in every community where it has become known, on account of its various other remedial properties.

In all cases of a Dropsical tendency, it is generally the only remedy required, when adopted in the early stage of the disease.

In dyspepsia maladies, when taken in proper quantities, as a diet drink, and especially at dinner, it is found, by uniform experience, to be eminently efficacious in the most obstinate cases, when even the best of the usual remedies have failed to afford more than temporary relief. In cases of Flatulency, it is an immediate and invariable specific, and it may be administered in diluted and proportionate quantities, even to YOUNG INFANTS, in all those paroxysms of griping pain in the stomach and bowels to which they are especially subject, as well as in the choice of grown persons.

Its judicious adoption in connection with the principal meals, or when a sense of exhaustion dictates its use, never fails to relieve the debility attendant upon protracted chronic maladies, low temperament and exhausted vital energy, by whatever cause induced. These are facts to which many of the most eminent medical men, both in England and the United States, have borne testimony, and which are corroborated by the highest written authorities.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with my name on the bottles, cork, and fac-simile of my signature on the label.

For sale by all the respectable Druggists and Liquor dealers in California and Oregon.

Under the above and similar titles, the liquor mixers of this city are bottling large quantities of adulterated, unwholesome trash, costing but little, on which they hope to realize large profits by selling in California.

Avoid all compounds. Some are so skillfully prepared as to pass for good Liquor, except with the best judges. If you would be safe, use only the long established, renowned, genuine Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never able to say of any oth—been able to —NEVER HASIT MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an dissatisfaction by any one using it. On the contrary, SYRUP, they all are delighted with its operations and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after many years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with never failing success in

THOUSANDS OF CASES,

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will relieve almost instantly and overcome convulsions, which if not speedily remedied, end in Death. We believe it the SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from other causes. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints; DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine; if timely used. Full directions will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Griping in the Bowels, and Wind Colic;

LIVER INVIGORATOR

Never Debilitates.

IT is compounded entirely from Gums, and has become an established fact, a Standard Medicine, known and appreciated by all who have used it, and is now regarded, by all the discerning, as recommended.

It has cured thousands of cases within the last two years who had given up all hopes of relief, as the numerous unsolicited certificates in my possession show.

The dose must be adapted to the temperament of the individual taking it, and used in such quantities as to act gently on the Bowels. Let the dictates of judgment guide you in the use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR, and it will cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Dropsey, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costive Ness, Colic, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Sick Headache, Fever and Ague, Fever Infantum, Flatulence, Jaundice, Female Weaknesses, and may be used successfully as an Ordinary Family Medicine. It will cure SICK HEADACHE, (as thousands can testify,) in twenty minutes, if two or three Teaspoonfuls are taken at commencement of attack.

All who use it are giving their testimony in its favor.

MIX WATER IN THE MOUTH WITH THE INVIGORATOR, AND SWALLOW BOTH TOGETHER.

Tribute to Merited Worth.

The ingratitude of man to his fellow man is so often met with in life, that testimonials, prompted by finer feelings of the heart, are oases in the life of those who sacrifice their best days in philanthropic devotion to the alleviation of the ills of frail mortality. Empiricism floods the columns of our press with fraudulent and fictitious letters, singing pœans to the world, their high scientific qualifications. Below we append a certificate from a worthy man, who, a brief period since, seemed destined to "shuffle off his mortal coil," who looked forward to his dissolution with that pleasure which only those weighed down by the heavy hand of disease can. Contrary to hope, the ability of a skilful physician has restored him to his former health. Relieved from his terrible sufferings, and overjoyed by gratitude he makes known his case, and his remedial agent, and his statement is authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their perusal to the afflicted of all afflicted.

THANKFULNESS IS THE INCENTIVE TO GRATITUDE.

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health.—Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty, impeded by the daily adovcations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, and was relieved by disease as of trifling importance, but, alas, after a few weeks, and, in several instances, months, of their treatment, I found, to my unutterable horror, that, instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their nature, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever re-gaining my health, strength and energy; and, as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, I called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine, which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself under his care, and, by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the inability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and, at times, pleasurable dreams by night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and, in fact, in two months after having consulted the Doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which, a short time ago, I contemplated to end with my own hand.

With a view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merits and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that, once under his care, a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

[L. S.] B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, county of San Francisco. Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 17th day of April, A. D. 1858. (Signed,)

[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary public.

Card.

Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of Epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and, although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and, with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed

State of California, county of San Francisco, ss.—Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 1st day of August, A. D. 1859.

[L. S.] GILBERT A. GRANT, Notary Public.

A Card.

I, the undersigned, having been under the treatment of Dr. L. J. Czapkay, although unsolicited, feel called upon to give publicity to the efficiency of his treatment, hoping that by doing so I may be instrumental in preventing others from the fearful suffering and misery which I experienced, and which so often result from the pernicious practice of pretenders. My disease has been that of physical and mental debility, which follows in consequence of indiscretions in youth. The agonies which I endured are, perhaps, unnecessary for me to detail, they are known to those who have experienced them. Suffice it to say, that having called the services of Dr. L. J. Czapkay into requisition, all the expectations which I may have formed of him were more than realized. I would therefore recommend Dr. Czapkay to all who may find themselves afflicted with that dreadful malady, my object in so doing being sympathy for suffering humanity, and a heartfelt desire of relieving them.

THE SHERIFF AND THE WIDOW—A STORY OF MISTAKEN FACTS.—We have heard a good story, of which an Alabama Sheriff was the hero. Court was in session and amid the multiplicity of business which crowded upon him at term time, he stopped at the door of a beautiful widow, off the sunny side of thirty, who by the way, had often bestowed melting glances upon the aforesaid Sheriff. He was admitted, and the widow appeared; the confusion and fright which the arrival of her visitor occasioned, set off to greater advantage than usual the captivating charms of the widow M———. Her cheeks bore the beautifully blended tints of the apple blossom; her lips resembled the rose buds upon which the morning dew yet lingered, and her eyes were the quivers of Cupids, and the glances of love and tenderness with which they were filled, resembled arrows that only invited a beau to do full execution. After a few common place remarks:

"Madame," said the matter of fact Sheriff, "I have an attachment for you."

A deeper blush than usual mantled the cheeks of the fair widow; the downcast eyes, whose glances were centered upon her beautiful foot, which half concealed by her flowing drapery, gently patted the floor, she, with equal candor replied:

"Sir, the attachment is reciprocal."

For some time the Sheriff maintained an astonished silence—at lenght he said:

"Madame, will you proceed to court?"

"Proceed to court?" replied the lady with a merry laugh; then shaking her head she said: "No, sir; though this is leap year I will not take advantage of the license therein granted for my sex, and, therefore, I greatly prefer that you should proceed to Court!"

"But, Madame, the Justice is waiting"

"Let him wait; I am not disposed to hurry matters in so unbecoming a manner; and besides, sir, when the ceremony is performed, I wish you to understand that I greatly prefer a minister to a justice of the peace."

A light dawned upon the Sheriff's brain. "Madame," said he, rising from his chair with solemn dignity, "there's a great mistake here; my language has been misunderstood. The attachment of which I speak was issued from the office of Squire C———, and commands me to bring you instantly before him to answer a contempt of court, in disobeying a subpœna in the case of Smith vs. Jones."

We drop the curtain.

THE BLADENSBURG DUELING GROUND.—An eastern newspaper writer gives the following about the famous dueling ground, Bladensburg:

"In 1814 Edward Hopkins was killed here in a duel.

In 1819 A. T. Mason, a U. S. Senator fought with his sister's husband, John McCarty, here. McCarty was averse to fighting and thought there was no necessity for it; but Mason would fight. McCarty named muskets loaded with grape shot, and so near together that they would hit heads if they fell on their faces. This was changed by the seconds to loading with bullets and taking twelve feet as the distance. Mason was killed instantly and McCarty, who had his collar bone broken, still lives with Mason's sister in Georgetown.

In 1820 Commodore Decatur was killed in a duel here by Commodore Barron. At the first fire both fell to ward, with their heads within ten feet of each other; and as each supposed himself mortally wounded, each fully and freely forgave the other, still lying on the ground. Decatur expired immediately, but Barron eventually recovered.

In 1021 two strangers names Loza and Sega appeared here, fought, and Sega was instantly killed.

In 1822 Midshipman Locke was killed here by a clerk of the Treasury department named Gibson.

In 1826 Henry Clay fought with John Randolph, just across the Potomac, as Randolph preferred to die, it at a l. on Virginia soil.

In 1832 Martin was killed here by Carr.

In 1835 Mr. Key, brother to Barton Key, of Nickles notoriety, met Mr. Sherborn, and exchanged a shot, when Sherborn said:

"Mr. Key, I have no desire to kill you."

"No matter," said Key, "I came to kill you."

"Very well, then," said Sherborn, "I will now kill you."

In 1838 W. J. Graves of Kentucky, assuming the quarrel of James Watson Webb with Jonathan Cilley, of Maine, selected this place for the duel; but, the parties learning that Webb, with two friends, Jackson and Merrill, were armed and in pursuit, for the purpose of assassinating Cilley, moved toward the river and nearer the city. Their pursuers moved toward the river, but missed the parties, and then returned to the city, to which they were soon followed by Graves and the corpse of Cilley.

In 1845 a lawyer named Jones fought with and killed a Dr. Johnson.

——"Tommy, my son, run to the store and get me some sugar."

"Excuse me, ma; I am somewhat indisposed this morning. Send father, and tell him to bring me a plug of tobacco."

——As a man drinks he generally grows reckless in his case, the more drams the fewer scruples.

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE
BETTER THAN
EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
CONSOLATION FOR THE SUFFERING.

Nearly fifty years continual use in every part of this habitable globe, among the savage and the civilized alike, has proved its simple eruptions, open sores, hard tumors, scrofulous developments of all kinds, abscesses, cancers, old wounds, and, in one word, every species of inflamation and suppuration, whether in the skin, the flesh, the glands, or among the muscles, can be arrested and permanently cured, without danger, by rubbing in and using as a dressing, this inestimable Ointment.

Scrofula, Erysipelas, & Salt Rheum.

No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore Heads, Scrofula of Erysipelas, can long withstand its influence.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers

Cases of many years standing that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions on the Skin,

Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic disease, are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emollient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healthy qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Rheumatism,	Sores of all kinds,
Burns,	Ringworm,	Sprains,
Chapped hands,	Salt Rheum,	Stiff Joints,
Chilblains,	Scalds,	Tetter,
Fistula,	Skin Diseases,	Ulcers,
Gout,	Swelled Glands,	Venereal Sores,
Lumbago,	Sore Legs,	Wounds of all
Mercurial Eruptions.	Sore Breasts,	Kinds.
	Sore Heads,
Piles,	Sore Throats,

Pacific Ear Infirmary!
Important to the Deaf & Deaf Dumb!

DR. PILKINGTON,
Late Proprietor of the Institution for the Deaf at St. Louis, Missouri, and Chicago, Illinois,

HAS arrived and may be consulted at the corner of Montgomery and California streets, (Express Building, up stairs) San Francisco. Early attention is desired.

Deafness, Dizziness, Ear Ache, Catarrh, Noise in the Head, and all discharges from the Ear, Mouth or Nostrils, ENTIRELY REMOVED.

A number of years of unremitting attention to diseases of the Ear as a speciality, has enabled him to make many improvements in all that has heretofore known of Aural Medicine and Surgery and to insure such a degree of success in all cases of curable deafness. A great number of certificates and testimonials can be seen at his office, from many well known citizens in different parts of the Union.—From the afflicted at a distance, a letter of inquiry enclosing a stamp, to pay answer, will receive immediate attention. The Eyes! The Eyes!

DR. E. H. PARDEE,

OCULIST—After a protracted blindness of more than five years, DR. PARDEE has once more commenced and successfully accomplished with all diseases of the Eye, and has now been in practice eight years in San Francisco with a success that cannot be surpassed in any part of the United States; and for proof of this he will, subsequently, refer to those that have been cured by him, after having exhausted the skill of all the eminent Oculists in the cities of Boston, Philadelphia and New York. Dr. P. wholly objects to the use of caustic, blue stone—keeping the patient in a dark room, dieting, blistering, cupping—the blue pill at night and salts in the morning, etc., etc. DR. PARDEE has also been remarkably successful in the treatment of Amaurosis, Neuralgia, and all pains about the head; and the frequent calls that he has for his Rheumatic mixture from all parts of this coast, with the many testimonials, is positive proof of its efficacy, and to prevent answering many inquiries by letter, he will state that it can be sent to any part of the State or coast, and each bottle will be accompanied with full directions and a receipt for a liniment, magical in its effects over pain, ingredients of which can be procured any where—price, $10. The ARTIFICIAL EYES inserted by Dr. P. have all the natural movements of the real eye, and cannot be detected even by close inspection. Address
